

List of Authors who have written about Firm Management and start ups.

Kirsten Murray, AIA: Maintaining a Culture of Creativity as a Firm Grows

Ronald Altoon, FAIA: Practicing in a Global Marketplace

Deborah DeBernard, AIA: Developing and Managing a Multi-Office Firm

F Steve L. Wintner, AIA, Financial Management: 10 Key Performance Indicators

September 2006

Phil Bernstein, FAIA: Emerging Project Delivery Methods

Elena Marcheso Moreno, Starting a Firm, 13th edition of Architecture Practice Handbook

Ann Casso and Fredric Schultz, CPCU, ARM, Insurance Coverage for Business and Professional Liability

Rena M. Klein, FAIA: Ms. Klein is the author of The Architect's Guide to Small Firm Management (Wiley, 2010),

Judith Blau and her book Architects and Firms: A Sociological Perspective of Architectural Practices (1987)

Peter Piven recently founded Peter Piven Management Consultants

Compensation Management: a Guideline for Small Firms, and co-author of Success Strategies for Design Professionals: SuperPositioning for Architectural and Engineering Firms.

Architect's Essentials of Ownership Transition was published by John Wiley & Sons in February, 2002, and Architect's Essentials of Starting a Design Firm, which he wrote with Brad Perkins, was published in May, 2003.

Architect's Essentials of Starting, Assessing and Transitioning a Design Firm, which he wrote with Mr. Perkins, was published by Wiley in 2008.

Joan Capelin (Author)

Communication by Design: Marketing Professional Services [Paperback]