Guiding Principles of Federal Architecture

- Report of the Ad Hoc Committee on Federal Office Space
  Issued by President Kennedy, authored by Patrick Daniel Moynihan

- “an architectural style and form which is distinguished and which will reflect the dignity, enterprise, vigor and stability of the American National Government . . . designs which embody the finest contemporary American architectural thought . . . development of an official style must be avoided.”

DANIEL PATRICK MOYNIHAN
The Intellectual in Public Life
EDITED BY ROBERT A. KATZMANN
"Architecture is one inescapably public art . . . that government can have as little involvement with the arts generally as it chooses, save that it cannot avoid architecture . . . Architecture is inescapably a political art, and it reports faithfully for ages to come what the political values of a particular era were."
