

TRAINING IN CULTURAL PROPERTY PROTECTION

The National Council for Preservation
Education's 2022 annual conference

DISCUSSION TOPIC

The importance of developing an expanded awareness of cultural properties, with a special emphasis on Indigenous communities, military cultural awareness, and the challenges facing practitioners, educators, and keepers of traditional knowledge.

SPEAKERS

MICHAEL TOMLAN, FAPT

Professor, Director of Historic Preservation Planning, Cornell
University (Ithaca, NY)

MELISSA SMITH, MS HISTORIC PRESERVATION

PhD Candidate, Cornell University
(Ithaca, NY)

LAURIE W. RUSH, PhD

FAAR '11, Cultural Resources
Manager, Environmental Division
at Fort Drum

MODERATOR

SUE ANN PEMBERTON, FAIA, FAPT

Chair, NCPE Executive Committee
School of Architecture + Planning
University of Texas at San Antonio

15
DECEMBER
1PM EST

VIRTUAL VIA ZOOM

HTTPS://CORNELL.
ZOOM.US/J/963674
61641?PWD=UVHH
QMK1WU9RC0VQM
DRYOE1ROTZDUT09

FIND OUT MORE:

<https://www.ncpe.us>

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PRESERVATION EDUCATION

NCPE