

Small Project Design Sponsorship Prospectus 2020

Small Project Design is an AIA knowledge community focused on small projects. We have 11,000 members in 60+ countries, including architects and design professionals working on small projects in firms of all sizes as well as sole proprietors. Project types include residential, hospitality, institutional, educational, urban design, and installations.

AIA Small Project Design knowledge community supports, celebrates, and promotes small projects by engaging designers and the public.

SPD EVENTS

AIA Conference on Architecture

Each year, thousands of architects and design professionals attend the AIA Conference on Architecture. It's three immersive days focused on what's new and now in architecture and design, and includes a collection of small firm focused events and continuing education. In addition to educational sessions, SPD hosts the SPD Forum, an event for members and others to share project updates, practice insights, challenges, and solutions.

SPD PRODUCTS

Small Project Awards

These awards highlight the value projects modest in size and budget bring to communities and individuals by recognizing exemplary small projects.

Annual Review

Our annual review is a full-color journal that showcases 80+ pages of talent, curiosity, and passion through the people, projects, and programs stewarded by the Small Project Design Advisory Group.

Emails

We engage the 11,000 members of SPD through strategic email correspondence, alerting them to small project design trends, open projects, and programs

Grant

Currently in development for the 2019/2020 cycle, the new vision for the grant is to support design fees paid by non-profits for the feasibility study or design of a small project.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

We view all of our sponsors and affiliates as partners. By supporting SPD, you're supporting the relevance and value of small projects and small firm practitioners. As a sponsor, you'll gain exclusive access to our highly engaged niche audience, our products, and our online network.

Interested in an opportunity not listed below? Small Project Design is open to exploring new opportunities that are beneficial to both our sponsors and our members.
