

Construction Contract Administration Sponsorship Prospectus 2020

Through live presentations, interactive discussions, and our growing library of white papers, we inform architects of the ever-evolving approaches to project delivery. These programs and papers, provided by members of CCA, cover a broad variety of CCA-related topics. They describe current best practices, investigate changing CCA roles and responsibilities, and offer opinions on controversial subjects.

CONSTRUCTION CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION EVENTS

2020 CCA Symposium – September 25, 2020

CCA is hosting their second symposium focusing on construction administration, its process, and the technologies that are impacting it in an unprecedented way. This symposium will focus on the architect's role in meeting a project's budget, schedule, and energy compliance during construction contract administration. Advertised through CCA emails to the membership of ~1,400 members, we expect 60 attendees for this new event.

General Terms and Conditions: Sponsorship fees paid are unrestricted, unless specifically noted otherwise. For category exclusive sponsorships, opportunities are generally available on a first-come, first-served basis. The AIA reserves the right to select sponsors based on its best interests, and may accept or decline an offer by a potential sponsor based on broader commitments or considerations. Consistent with the AIA's bylaws, no sponsorship may be regarded as an indication that the AIA or its representatives sponsor or endorse any enterprise operated for profit or approve, sponsor, or endorse any material of construction or any method or manner of handling, using, distributing, or dealing in any material or product. The AIA reserves the right of prior approval over all materials produced by or for the Sponsor which bear or refer to trademarks associated with the AIA. All such materials shall be submitted to the AIA for its approval prior to the production, use, execution or implementation thereof.
